“ Phyllis was my life long friend and confident. We became friends through our stint as Sunday School Teachers at Tupperville United, we both worked at Sydenham Hospital until our retirement. We both became single mothers in the 80’s raising our teenagers..it wasn’t easy at times but we had each other to help us through the ups and downs.

Nervously Phyllis and I got into the dating game and eventually married a couple of real nice Dutchmen. Life was good, CBD dances, camping at Mitchell’s Bay, boating too, trips to Nashville, Renfro Valley.

Chris and Phyllis and Andy and me met for coffee/ toast every Wednesday at 930.... Discussed the weekly events..... won’t be the same anymore! Will cherish our memories forever, Rest gently, Phyllis.

Special love to Chris, the Daley and Heuvelman kids
