“ I'll always remember Uncle Ralph's beautiful smile, and great sense of humour. The time he and Aunt Grace spent with the nieces and nephews no doubt leaves us all with fond memories!! The overnights at the farm, or on the boat, seeing the little Volkswagen zooming down the road, or the BIG comfy cars with all the bells and whistles that were like sitting on a sofa. They loved to jump in the car and visit friends and relatives, bringing smiles wherever they went. He was such a caring person, and will be missed, but his love will always go on in our hearts.
