“ Sincerest and deepest sympathies to the Turner family. Lived across the street for several years. She was always a soft-spoken woman and great neighbours. Joyce (Vye) and Gord Ritchie.

“ I've known Becky through her volunteer work at Compassion Canada. Her sweet quiet spirit and her servant heart were such an inspiration. Her dedication to Compassion's ministry and her love for the children were seen in the time she gave in the office and in the thousands of letters she wrote to kids. The Compassion family loved her and will miss her greatly. With love and admiration, Deb Wilkins

“ Grant Martin ,my deceased husband , used to speak so favourably of the Turner family, who attended Charlemont Free Methodist church, when he was a younger teen when Rev. Gordon was the minister. Now he and Becky can worship our Saviour together, waiting for the ones of us left behind. Praise God. Margaret Martin

“ Becky was a woman of God and had a heart of gold. It was always great to come home and see my beautiful cousin sitting in church with her sister. I know she knew and served The Lord she is now with. You will be missed here but you are privileged to be in the presence of your Lord and saviour. To my cousins I wish you healing in this loss but also realize we all face death and must choose our destination. I pray yours is with Becky and Jesus. Decide now tomorrow may be too late. Love your cousin. Betty (Eagleson) Waldie
