“ I'll miss Rex from my heart, he is a good guy and I absolutely loved his megawatt smile! They say people will forget what you said, or what you did, but they'll NEVER forget they way you made them feel, and for those memories and chuckles, I'll always be grateful, "thank you Rex" for always making me feel loved...cya later..

“ My heart, thoughts and prayers go out to Aunt Kath, Jeffrey, and all of Rex's family. Growing up especially early on I never had an older brother or mentor in my life, cousin Rex was that person. I can recall many many times him teaching me how to treat others with both respect and dignity. He also showed and taught me how to have and display self-respect. He most definitely led by example. Rex had such a natural gift of inspiration, inspiring and impacting those with his heart and soul and his beliefs. We were so very fortunate and blessed to have Rex in our lives. I will never forget you, love you always cuz....!!!

“ I always admired my cousin Rex, he was a brave warrior who stepped into politics and one has to be brave to take that step. I am very sad that his wonderful life was cut so short, and I know our family and our tribe will lose out on his wonderful perspective, and his bravery to voice his opinion. Thank you for everything cuz! Baamapii!
