“ I remember, as a young person growing up in the church, how I loved it when Brother Bob was called upon to pray..... I could tell (even in my own spiritual immaturity) that he knew intimately, the Heart of the One to Whom he was praying..... So very reassuring!

“ To all of Bob’s family, please accept our sincere condolences on the loss of your wonderful Dad, Grandpa and Great Grandpa. He was a kind and gentle and polite man his whole life and a real Pleasure to know. He and Jean raised a fantastic family and they were so proud of all of you. When Bob was at the Wallaceburg Residence, we got to visit with him whenever we saw him sitting there relaxing and talking to some of his friends. You are all in our thoughts and prayers and we are sorry we cannot be there to give you our condolences personally as we are away on holidays. Love, Mary and Lionel too.

“ Our deepest sympathy to the Hazzard Family. What a wonderful individual Bob was. As a young farming couple moving to the area in 1973 we soon started doing business with Hazzard's in Becher. Bob was the counter person for many years and we always respected the advice he gave us and always enjoyed talking to him whether it was business or personal. We will continue to have great memories of those times. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Jim & Anne Duffy “ Robert Hazzard was my first cousin once removed. I only remember meeting him once several years ago when another cousin and I visited him while we were searching family. I am certain that I met him other times when I went to family reunions as a child. This meeting was special to me because he was as happy to meet me as I was happy to meet him. He was so kind. We talked of family and laughed together. I always intended to visit again. Then Covid prevented travel. Then my passport expired. My life is enriched for the time I spent with this dear man. May he rest in peace.

“ I am saddened that this day has come. Bob was such a model resident and inspiration to all of us at the Wallaceburg Retirement Residence.

He was always the first to lend a helping hand; a true gentleman with a heart of gold.

I looked forward to our conversations which always ended in a hug and an offering of some peppermints.

Bob loved to do jigsaw puzzles and I would occasionally bring him in some of mine cause I told him his were too hard and mine were more “fun” lol.

Whenever I had a minute or two to spare, I would help him to find a puzzle piece or two.

He was appreciative of any care that was ever given to him and he made sure to express that gratitude.

The home will never be the same without him.

Bob..you will forever be the missing piece to our puzzle.

It's been such a blessing knowing you. Rest In Peace my dear friend.

“I appreciate ya.” 😊

“ I am saddened to hear of the passing of my lifelong friend and mentor Bob. A big part of who I am today is because of Bob and his prayers, love, guidance, wisdom and the example he set as a man of God steadfast in his faith for many of us growing up in the church to see. I first met Bob almost 50 years ago as a small snotty nosed kid with a knack to find trouble. One day he appeared out of no where asking if my mom or dad was home and if he could talk to them. My first thought was who is this man and what did i do now? Little did I know my life was about to change in a way i could never imagine. It seemed that a church in town called Bethel Pentecostal had in their wisdom decide to start a Sunday school bus ministry. In a nut shell a group of Godly men would go out each sunday with a bus and driver and scoop up all the kids and bring them to sunday school. I bet when that first Sunday came and 200 of us rowdy, many unclean, some even hungry or from single parent homes and even those sent because some parents saw it as a free 2 1/2 babysitting service jumped off those buses there were a few wondering what they had gotten into. But we all were met with love, a hug and kindness, many were cleaned and fed and were introduced to the gospel and many of us it led to giving our hearts to Christ and serving him as our Lord and Saviour. Bob had a heart for kids he took us under his wing with kindness love and always a smile, he took time to get to know our parents and showed an intrest in each of us and for me it became a lifetime freindship of wisdom, guidance, prayer, even when i stumbled or fell I was never judged but was encouraged to pick myself up and his hand always offered out. Bob had a handshake that the next day felt like he was still shaking it. Together Bob and Jean thru Bethel and daily life touched the lives of many kids who today live their lives for Christ by the example shown by them. I tried to find one word to describe Bob but it seemed one wasnt enough, so here are a few... Faithful and True, a man of integrity, honest and genuine, steadfast in his Lord and saviour, a man of God. Wise with his words and soft with his heart. Many more but for me if it did come down to one or two words it would be friend and mentor. I will miss my friend, his warm smile and grin, that firm handshake and his words of encouragement. Bob has run and finished his race and has been greeted with a Well done my good and faithful servant. To Roger, Carol, Connie, Brian, Keith and Kevin thank you for sharing your amazing Dad with all of us bus kids. May God comfort and bless you in your time of loss.
