“ Saddened to learn, this morning, of Robert's sudden passing. My thoughts immediately return to Dufferin Ave. Growing up near our cousins created many great memories. Wrestling matches, fishing and hunting adventures, constructing forts, constructing go carts, playing football, and, of course, with so many boys on Dufferin, family squabbles that kept us all entertained. It was a great time and place to live. Although I can not return to Wallaceburg today my thoughts will be with you Robert and family. Please accept my sincere condolences from afar. Dick Dawe.
