I think it was his only trip west and he had a lot of surprises on the road trip to the mountains. It was a good time with the family. He will be missed.

“ I was truly saddened to hear of Ron's passing.. We were both south side boys way back when and used to play and hang out together on Albert St, along with Brian Brownlee. We lost contact over the years but I still have such fond memories of Ron and his family and the fun we had. Ron always had the best home made fort of all of us guys. This talent surely carried on in his future years.

Many years later Ron was to build my brother's home next door to us.. We did much reminising during the building project.. It was good.

My sincere condolences to the entire Lozon family. " Nicker" was a good guy...
