Darlene my heart goes out to you since hearing of Ron's passing. Being in the UK is hard to keep up to things going on. Please know that I wish sincere love and heartfelt wishes to you and the children. Understanding the loss in your family will be hard but please remember that family and friends are there to be with you and help you through this terrible time since Ron passed. Rely on those friends and family as you get stronger and you are able to come to terms with the changes you will have. I lost my David now a year and a half ago, things do get better so rely on those around to help. Sincere and heartfelt love Darlene. Sharron MacNally

I am sad that he did not get to enjoy his cottage for very long after spending so much time and effort refurbishing it, although that was probably half the fun for him!
