“ After hearing of Ron's passing I was flooded with childhood memories of a time when the Wade family was a big part of my life. I remember as a little girl sitting on Ron's knee and he would bounce me up and down....I adored him. Our families shared many great times together as my parent's best friends. My thoughts go out to Bob, Ron, Chuck and Clara and hope that your memories keep Ron close in your heart. It's been years since I've seen any of you but Mom and I speak of your family often and reminisce times at the cottage and boating.

*Great picture of Ron, it's exactly how I remember him.

“ Such sad news, I met Ron when i was sixteen. The old Village service center. Ron was the one who gave me my nickname, still use it on occasion today. Been a long time since i'd seen him but i know i'll carry on the stories he had told me. Always made me laugh. Dave Ross
