“ I wasn't privileged to know Rose Johnston but believe she will live on in her devoted son, Shawn, whom I've known since his teen years. To see the curtain fall on one so loved, and know farewell comes without regrets, is indicative of a life well lived. May cherished memories sustain you, Shawn, as you walk a challenging road. Ann C. So sorry for your loss. Rose was such a kind and loving woman..my memories of Rose will forever touch my heart..she was one of my fondest and favourite customers in the dealership..I always picked her vehicle up for her and made sure she was always taken care of..she reminded me so much of my grandmother and she would always give me a random phone call to always check in to see how things were going on in my life..she had an amazing heart and I am going to miss her dearly.

“ My memories of Rose go way way back to the days of Landon's restaurant. She was always a fun loving and cheerful girl and many years later when I ran into her again I found she hadn't changed much. I'm so sorry for your loss.
