“ I was saddened to come across Rosie's obituary. It's odd that I have been thinking of her quite a bit lately, wondering how she was doing. Her and Ray had been customers for many, many years. After Ray had passed away Rosie would keep me on my toes making sure each year that I had the best premiums for her. I always enjoyed her visits.

My condolences go out to Paul, Anne Marie, and families.

“ Paul, Katie and Lauren - so sorry to hear of your Mom/Gramma passing away. I remember sitting with her at basketball games. Once on a Good Friday in between games we went to John's Restaurant and she ordered bacon forgetting that she was not suppose to eat meat on Good Friday. I remember she was so mad at her herself. I thought that was so sweet. We laughed and told her God would forgive her. What a wonderful woman!! RIP

“ Rosie always bought tickets from me when they lived on Duke St. It didn't matter what I was selling, she always bought. Ray used to yell at Josie (my best friend) and myself for climbing their trees. He always yelled but he laughed as he did it. Later, I babysat Paul. I loved having talks with Rosie when she would pay her dues for CWL or when I saw her at the Oaks in Wallaceburg. She was a Lady!

With loving memories.
