“ i remember Sandy most of all playing cards with my brother Art , my sister Pat and I . we would start playing and we would play all night, go to sleep for a couple of hours, Pat and i would go to school, come home, do our homework. then start all over again. we would live on 2 hours a sleep each night for a whole day and then come Saturday or Sunday we would crash for the whole day. and then start all over again.I will really miss Sandy.
