The time I spent with Shari when she was involved in a home bible study in my home will be times of fellowship I will always remember. Times of growing in our faith & relationship with God. Shari will be missed but because Jesus was her Savior she is now enjoying the presence of her Lord.

We thought it was neat that we had the same name and lived in the same town and both had breast cancer. My heart aches over her passing, another incredible woman gone to soon. The fact that she is in her Saviours arms free of pain and sorrow should bring all of us left behind comfort at this time. I extend my prayers and condolences to her family. God Bless*
