“ I remember Sharon from long ago in public school #12 Carlyle. Although so many years ago I was so impressed with her artistic talent , her kind and quiet ways and I remember thinking how beautiful she was.

I can see from the tributes that Sharon grew into adulthood with the same inner beauty.

To those that I walked to and forth from school..Joan, Carol , Linda and Judy and the rest of the family my condolences.

“As the youngest Branton “grandchild” I have little knowledge or memory of my grandparents. My grandfather passed away before I was born and I only had six short years with my grandmother, but my Aunt Sharon and Uncle Ron easily filled this void for me as a child.

I have great memories spending weekends with Aunt Sharon at the farm growing up. She always made sure all the materials were in place for our little art projects, she taught me how to play pool and even knew where to find Brad’s Super Nintendo to let us play when he wasn’t around (sorry Brad). Aunt Sharon would listen to me “play” the piano for hours at a time, despite the fact that I really didn’t know how, and was patient with me as I tried to learn.

She was the person who taught me to play x’s and o’s and always encouraged me to write. I can recall spending an entire weekend clicking away at her typewriter when I was younger trying to write a novel.

I remember that no matter how old I was, my Aunt Sharon treated me like an adult; she had this amazing way of mixing honesty and sympathy that made her so easy to talk to. She knew exactly when to make a phone call to let me know she was thinking of me and encouraged me (whether it be writing a novel, playing the piano or taking chances later in my life) to have the courage to try.

Watching my cousins Shona, Julie and Beth grow up with such an amazing Grandma has been such a treat for me. Through their stories and experiences, I’ve been able to relive the amazing moments I shared with my Aunt Sharon and was happy to know she was creating the same great experiences for them that she had for me.

“ I always looked forward to the visits and discussions I had with Sharon. Her honesty and down to earth attitude made it easy and enjoyable to talk with her. She always showed interested in our lives and was quick to recall a cute and affectionate tale about some loved one. She was generous with her time and talents showing the kids how to paint, creating craft projects, and hosting New Year's Eve parties!

Sharon and Ron were the foundation of all the pig roasts we enjoyed. It gave us a place to share and catch up with family. It developed a tradition for our children to remember. We are immensely grateful for those memories. Love you and miss you Aunt Sharon!

“ She will always be remembered for the kind caring person who kept her home open to our family, who looked out for everyone who was done and out even though she was not well herself. Who kept watch over our Mom out on the farm when she lived alone. She shared her artistic abilities with the little ones and kept the Branton family together out on the farm being a very gracious host. Love and peace be with you -Carolyn, (Branton) Gallerno Rod Heather, Chris, Shannon, Adam and Bria

“ There were so many awesome childhood memories out at the farm and many of them at aunt Sharon and uncle Ron's. From Christmas parties to playing stinky cootie hat to all the fun on labour day. Aunt Sharon was always willing to share her home and hospitality. She always had a great smile and it will be dearly missed. My deepest sympathy to you uncle Ron, Brad and Sara and Darryl and Patricia and to all the girls. I'll be keeping you in my prayers.
