“ When I met Shelby through an acting class she was like an elder and a child wrapped up in one. Wise, very creative, and kind. Her writing is powerful and she was generous to share it. In this way she is still present. May her family find comfort in knowing she left a wonderful impression. Continue your story in a good way Shelby. Healing prayers to your family and friends.

Sincerely,
Kim...

“ Sending my condolences to Shelby's family from Anna Smith in Vancouver. I met her in our drama class here at the friendship center and was amazed by her talent, intelligence, creativity and beauty. Also, she was a very kind and thoughtful person, truly unique and irreplaceable. I have a few photos of her and will forward them as soon as I can. Many famous artists and figures passed away this year, but the loss of Shelby is what makes me feel the most sad. Although I knew her only for a brief time I will never forget her brilliant poetry and the strength of her presence on stage. My heart goes out to everyone who is feeling her loss this Chirstmas.

“ Just as I'm writing this never thought til now but I do by chance had in my possession 3 battery operated candles that our now by your book (both boys & myself)... And to boot a guitar I've had, found at a goody store, that I didn't know what it was going to be used for, also until now.. Had thoughts of Ash when buying it and was good for a memorial garden but now will be memorial piece of you for wherever I plan to place it. Eventually with you but to keep it secured as well.. Can't say it enough how much your presence and everything about you that will be missed, especially by your sons - Love u Shelb but u knew that (and likewise) xoxox
