

Shirley Brady

December 21, 2013

Shirley Marie Brady (nee Pate) died peacefully on Saturday, December 21, 2013 at Fairfield Park after a lengthy illness. She was 89 years of age. She was predeceased by her parents, Gordon and Beatrice Pate, husbands, Ralph Brady, and Samuel Evans, and brothers Stan, Lloyd, Jack, Bill and Gordon. She is survived by her brother, George of London, two children, Carol McPhail (John Gardiner) of Wallaceburg and Wayne Brady of Kentucky (Yvonne of Port Lambton) as well as six grandchildren, Joanne McPhail (Jim Graszat) of Barrie, Chad McPhail (Lynn) of Wallaceburg, Jim Brady of British Columbia, Colleen Roberts (Richard) of Courtright, Jason Brady of Sarnia and Cristin Blakeley (Dylan) of Ottawa. Shirley is also survived by eight great grandchildren and her extended family, Rebecca and Ryan Davis and their children and Jason and Daniela Gardiner and their son. Shirley, with her husband Ralph, owned and operated the Castaway Inn and Diamond Jim's Restaurant on the St. Clair River north of Sombra during the 1960's. After moving to Florida in the 1970's, she worked in real estate and was a volunteer with the Broward County Hospital and the Grandmother's Program in the Broward County School System. She also volunteered with the VON in Sarnia for many years. Shirley loved to cook and entertain and hosted many family gatherings. She was especially proud of her grandchildren and great grandchildren. A committal service for the family is planned for Forest Lawn Cemetery in the spring. The funeral arrangements have been entrusted to the HAYCOCK-CAVANAGH FUNERAL HOME, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg
