“ The only thing that takes my heart ache away is knowing that you are No longer in pain that makes me feel so much better inside, that God free you from the hurt and the pain. I am joyful I had time with you before the Angels took you away, I will always Love you more than words can ever say, Your forever in my heart and nothing will ever take that away, I may shed a tear but I will smile to know you are still near you are always in my heart.
