“ Growing up, Slim was just not my cousin, he was one of my best friends. We shared a lot of good times together, playing and fishing. I remember Slim taking us out for a starlit boatride after my father died in 1996. I will never forget his kindness and generosity to everyone he knew. When my now wife, MaryCharles and I were visiting in 2010, he thought her double name was humorous and decided if she could be MaryCharles, he could be SlimBob and that is what she called him. We enjoyed being at his and Barbara's home on the water. Our deepest condolences to his dad, Uncle Ewart, Barbara and Brenda, (we got to see her when we came up for the cousins reunion in August), and to all of Slim's children and grandchildren. The Benoit cousins have taken a great loss these last few months. We should all cherish our time together, each moment, each day. We are praying for everyone. We will miss Slim so very much. With love, Greg and MaryCharles Benoit.

I remember going to Gar's with you and Lloyd from Nova Scotia and the customs dude took yours and Lloyd's ID and I had to open the trunk and the customs dude asked me who was in the car. I said "Lloyd and Slim". He said that's not what his ID says. I said oh ya it's Richard but everybody calls him Slim. Not 5 minutes later he did the same thing and I said the same thing and he said the same thing. He let us go on our way.
