“ So sorry for the loss of Steve. Steve was an amazing man. Steve and Laurie had an amazing connection. So grateful they found each other and had a great connection. I know Laurie will miss their beautiful scenic drives, walks and chips truck under bridge, as well shopping for groceries together, figuring out what to make for supper. I am sorry I can't be there personally but I am always with you, and only a call away.
Love always and forever Angela Griffore (Lauzon)

“ I will never forget our Port Pelee adventures. While we stayed in cottages for a few weeks in the summer, when we were going down to the lake, Steve and Barry would hide in the woods along the path, and then jump out and scare the daylights out of us when we walked by. I'm sure the two of them are together again, remembering all the good times they had.

“ I had known Steve from class at the WDSS 50 some years ago. We never did cross paths after that. I would often see him walking past our office and felt that I should reach out to him, unfortunately I never did. Wish now that I had made the effort.

My deepest sympathy to Patti and family.

“ Goodbye to my big brother...too soon to be ready for it, too suddenly to say goodbye properly.

A lot of memories over a lifetime have been flying around my head over the past couple of days ...racing down the driveway on my tricycle and you on your two wheel...me ending the race bleeding in Dad's rose bushes and you getting bawled out by Mom for racing a 6 year old. You and your buddies making me play goal in driveway hockey! I still think it was an excuse to scare the living bejeesus out of me. Oh yeah, buying me my first pair of jeans that Mom absolutely refused to allow me to buy and my first record player and 15 magazine subscriptions so I could win the trip to the Bob Seger concert in the 'big city' of London!Fighting about women's rights, politics, religion and anything else that crossed our mind. Laughing about all the shared memories. I'll miss you brother.
