

Susan 'Sue' Braiden

November 16, 2022

Susan (Sue) Jane Braiden (nee Southern), 59, died peacefully at Chatham-Kent Health Alliance on November 16th, 2022, surrounded by her loving family. Sue was born on April 4th, 1963, in Wallaceburg, Ontario to her cherished parents, Keith and late Nancy Southern. Loving and proud mother of Sienna Blakney (Brandon), Taylor Blakney (Danielle), Nigel Blakney (Stefanie), and Joshua Braiden (Anna). Newly beaming grandmother of Nina Blakney. Beloved niece to Joyce Barnes (late Brent) and Margaret McIver. Big sister to John Southern (Julia), Michael Southern (Michelle), Brian Southern (late Beverly), and honorary sister and best friend to Kathy Glendinning. Sue is also survived by many friends around the globe.

As Sue put it, she was an Adventure Diva and a Better World Scout. She made it her mission to help connect with others in the digital and physical worlds to find solutions to help make the world a better place. She was a passionate advocate for women and children at risk. Sue channeled this passion into her digital art where she created dozens of beautiful and emotive original portraits. Sue used her talents as an avid writer and expressive storyteller in her career as a solutions journalist and through hosting a weekly radio program as a computer columnist for CBC Radio Canada. Her storytelling also took on different forms that she expressed through many of her original musical compositions. Sue often extended her gift of gab into hours of videos and written content on her social media accounts.

Beyond her work life, Sue was a nature lover and enjoyed being among the trees, stars, and wildlife out in the fresh air. She often looked for meaning in the world around her, regarding birds, feathers, and other symbols as serendipitous connections to her life. She was a devoted animal lover, taking in many stray cats and providing a life for them otherwise unimaginable; Sue had a deep bond with her kitties, and they too will miss her deeply. Before she passed, she had the opportunity check off a bucket list goal by exploring Machu Picchu through live video with her daughter-in-law. Lastly, Sue was an impressive smart ass and had a love for slightly darker humour—two things that served her well up to and including some of her last words.

Family and friends are invited for visitation at the Haycock-Cavanagh Funeral Home (409 Nelson Street) in Wallaceburg on Monday, November 21st from 2-4 PM and 6-8 PM. The funeral will be celebrated at the Funeral Home on Tuesday, November 22nd at 11 AM (and will be live streamed via her social media accounts). Interment to follow at Riverview Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, please consider donations in her memory to the Farley Foundation (farleyfoundation.org/donate) or the Windsor-Essex Humane Society (windsorhumane.org/donatenow). Condolences and memories may be shared with her family at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca “ Sue’s dad Keith is my uncle, brother of my mother Lily. Sue was all of 4 years old when I left home to travel the country with the RCAF. I didn’t see much of her but over the last few I regularly followed her on Facebook. I always felt comfort from her posts. I will miss them and her.

“ My Deepest sympathy to Susan's father, siblings and to Kathy Glendenning. Susan and Kathy and I started kindergarten together at H.W. Burgess and we were friends through till Grade 6 and continued on at W.T. Laing for Grade 7 and 8. Susan and Kathy were always together and they were great friends. I regret not taking time to have a coffee with you ladies and I thought I still had time when I saw that another friend, Kathy Richardson-Brown, did so a few weeks ago. Susan, heaven has gained an angel. May you soar Cancer free. Your bravery through your words, will never be forgotten. Rest easy, my friend. Shirley Arnold-Ross

“ When I “met” Sue on the writers’ platform “Themestream”, I was blown away by her generosity of spirit. So talented in her own right, she took notice of my work and that of many others, and encouraged us, befriended us, even promoted us. I admired her deeply for her expertise in writing, art, music, and communications, but especially for her enthusiasm, her relentless engagement with everything that touched her life or that she found within her grasp. She was, herself, a light in the lives of so many. It was a privilege and a joy to have known her!

“ When I was in high school, Sue was the glamorous older sister of my dear friend, Brian, and the bubbly, outgoing daughter of my science teacher. Many years later, we reconnected on Facebook and developed a friendship that I have cherished for the last ten years, finding such warmth, positivity and intelligence in her every post. As she shared her cancer battle with all of us, I marvelled at her courage and her unfailing determination to choose joy each and every day. It doesn't seem possible that a light that shone that brightly could ever dim. I know Sue loved the quote, “We are all just walking each other home.” I am grateful that I got to share a part of that journey with her. Rest easy my friend; I will never forget you.

“ So sorry for all that Sue and her family and friends have been through. You are all in my prayers. Very few of you would know me, but I was part of the "Port Huron Crew" around 1980. Kathy would remember... We met the "Wallaceburg Crew" at Skate Port in Sarnia. Sue was the most impressive young lady most of us had ever met. Mature, witty, and incredibly beautiful, with amazing family and friends. None of us on the US side of the river will ever forget her. I especially appreciate how well she shared her experiences on social media. I wish everyone had the courage to do the same. Again, prayers for every one of Sue's family and friends. I wish I could share with you the way I remember her. She was AMAZING!

“ Our sincere condolences to Sue's family. Sue and I (Kim) were childhood, neighborhood and school friends. I have many fond memories of happy times on Balmoral and Sandra Crescents with our girl posse that included Kathy G, Heidi G and Jill M. Favorite past times were hanging in my basement rec room, swimming and canoeing and skating on Otter Creek. Our W.T. Laing and W.D.S.S. school yearbooks contain many candid photos of an always smiling Sue, her many volunteer activities and her insightful poetry. The 1981 Actiana yearbook is an especially memorable one as Sue was the editor that year. Sue was a kind and caring friend who possessed a big smile and a beautiful soul and who will be greatly missed.

“ I was shocked and sadden to learn of Sue passing. She was bright, funny, passionate, kind and an inspiration to many, myself included. She brought everyone along her battle and did so with grace elegance and a smile. I want to extend my deepest sympathy to her family. She is not in anymore pain, but will be missed dearly.
