“ Our condolences to Todd and all the family. Both Jonathan and I met Tom in Akron in the early 90's. He was my boss for a few years and also my friend for more years. I remember him fondly as a kind man who made the workday brighter. He worked hard and was quick to share his knowledge, and also share a laugh. I will also never forget the surprise birthday party we threw for him at the Akron office. Rest in peace, Tom. From Beth Anne and Jonathan Edwards

“ My condolences to the Johnston Family. Growing up in Port Lambton many years ago my memories of Tom was that of a good, caring man who was a pillar of the community and had this amazing memorable laugh that one would never forget. He always took the time to say hi and ask how you were doing. When I remember my childhood growing up in Port Lambton, Tom certainly comes to mind and he leaves a good memory. He was always nice to our family and my late sister Sandra always spoke very highly of Tom. The community has certainly lost a good one. Not many good people around like him these days. Rest in Peace Tom.

“ Tom was such a kind and funny man! I am sure he and Jan are smiling down on all of us now as they meet on the other side to again share in that beautiful example of true love that they set for us in their time here on earth. Tom's patience with many of us as teens was a true blessing :) I will smile whenever I pass their dock and remember his wonderful laugh. Hugs and love to all his family. Kate Aarssen and Sean Smith

I'll miss waving at him (and maybe pretending to throw dog poo in the river to tease him) when I take the dogs out for our evening walks along the river.

The kindness and care that Tom showed me that day, encouraged us to become parishioners at Sacred Heart.
