“ Wilfred was a childhood friend of my brother, Walker Smith. I Remember the two of them building a tree house behind the cottage at Erie Beach. I was too young to participate. Nor was I part of the sailing adventures at Erieau. They certainly had many good times. After breakfast, Walker used to go down to have a second breakfast with Mrs. Cos's wonderful peach marmalade. They were good times for both of them

I am very sorry for your loss of such a kind, gentle person.

Sincerely

Amelia (smith) Farquharson

“ I am remembering Wilf as another member of the Wallaceburg retail community of the 70's. The Town Cobbler was on James with The Sound Shop across at the Creek Street corner. His friendly face and gentle spirit most certainly played a part in the heyday of a busy downtown. I have lots of fond memories and now my thoughts are with Ann, Kim and all the family.
